

Praise and Prayer February 2018

Dear Friends of Colina de Luz

We ask for your prayers for all the Easter Vacation activity coming up. A complete new roof will be put on our Library/Computer Lab/Game Room building structure, which is one of our most used areas at Colina, except of course for the kitchen/dining room. We send our thanks to everyone who donated and each group who is coming to see this project through and those who have prayed it through as well.

Pray also for Outreach to be done in Jesus Name ~ always a blessings to those who are involved – givers as well as receivers. May many be reached this year!

At this moment we, Jim and Suzi, are on a vacation in Idyllwild. Our kids and grandkids have come to spend time with us (away from the hustle and bustle at Colina). They will be returning again before we go Home. We Praise God for sending snow on our Anniversary. It was beautiful to wake up to and spend the day in such beauty.

As we watched Billy Graham's funeral, we were so touched by his living legacy, and moved to tears at the testimony he left to the world. What an inspiration to strive to hear those words: "Enter in good and faithful servant"

Please keep us all in your prayers, we covet each and every one.

~Jim, Suzi, and all at Colina
